

THE MILT ROBINSON GUITAR SCHOLARSHIP 2025 APPLICATION

This scholarship is in honor of Bermudian bandleader and guitarist Milt Robinson. Milton was primarily a jazz guitarist but also played classical guitar as well as trombone and cello. Milt composed and arranged music for his band the Shinbone Alley Cats.

In Milt Robinson's honour, a Merit Scholarship has been created to promote the art of guitar and jazz music.

The Milt Robinson Guitar Scholarship is open to all Bermudian / PRC students to study at the Bermuda School of Music (charity 483). This scholarship is awarded for a full academic year (September to June).

This is a Merit based scholarship – Students will be considered who exemplify excellence in their field of music study through educational progression, examination, performance and community involvement.

(Exclusions: A previous recipient may not apply for 3 years)
